THAILAND PRIVILEGE – VISA TYPE

VISA TYPES & IMMIGRATION SERVICES

Another exclusive benefit reserved for Thailand Privilege Card members is access to special tourist visa and immigration services. There are two types of visas, each with different conditions: the Special Entry Visa (SE) and the Privilege Entry Visa (PE). Both offer superior benefits compared to a standard tourist visa, as they allow for longer periods of stay and do not require frequent exits—which can be a time-consuming process. Both visas can be processed online at www.thaivisa.go.th, or at the Immigration Bureau offices at Chaeng Watthana, Suvarnabhumi Airport, Chiang Mai, and Phuket International Airports.

SPECIAL ENTRY VISA (SE)

Another exclusive benefit for Thailand Privilege Card members is access to special tourist visa and immigration services. There are two types of visas, each with different conditions: the Special Entry Visa (SE) and the Privilege Entry Visa (PE). Both offer superior benefits compared to a standard tourist visa, allowing for longer periods of stay without the need for frequent exits—a process that can be very time-consuming. Both visas can be processed at Royal Thai Embassies, Royal Thai Consulates -General, the Head Office of the Immigration Bureau at Chaeng Watthana, or the Immigration Bureau offices at Suvarnabhumi, Chiang Mai, and Phuket International Airports.

PRIVILEGE ENTRY VISA (PE)

Members with membership status beginning after 2013 are granted a Privilege Entry Visa (PE). This is a continuously renewable, 5-year multiple-entry visa exclusive to Thailand Privilege Card members (valid for the duration of the membership). Visa holders are granted a one-year stay permit per entry, which can be extended for another year without needing to leave the kingdom. This extension incurs a processing fee of THB 1,900, payable to the Immigration Bureau. Additionally, visa holders are required to complete a 90-day report with the Immigration Bureau.

Kindly be informed that both the Special Entry Visa (SE) and the Privilege Entry Visa (PE) do not permit employment or work within the kingdom. These visas are entirely independent of, and unrelated to, the procedures for obtaining a work permit.

Please note that since both visas are exclusive to our members, it is mandatory to apply through Thailand Privilege Card to initiate the visa issuance process.
